August 25, 2013

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (C)

I pride myself on being prompt. It's about being considerate of those waiting for you. So my initial feelings toward the people in today's gospel—those who didn't get to the master's house before he locked the door—are not particularly sympathetic. "Should've checked your watch/stopped dawdling/planned ahead" is what cynically runs through my mind.

But that's exactly Jesus' point—once we're certain of our moral superiority and others' failures, we get in trouble. Jesus' story reveals that people who assumed they'd be welcomed by the master simply by association, heritage, or neighborhood are surprised to be left outside even as outsiders from distant lands are welcomed. God doesn't abide by our rules, divisions, and judgments.

In fact, God delights in upending our ideas of who is right and who is wrong. Jesus states it clearly,

"Some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." We hear it repeatedly—"Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own eye?" (Matthew 7:3)—yet we holler in political and religious arenas about who will be saved, who's going to hell, and who God favors and despises.

Jesus is clear: Strive to enter through the narrow door. He says many will attempt to enter but won't be strong enough. It's an interesting word choice—to fit through a narrow door, you need only be lean or thin, not necessarily strong.

Perhaps he meant strong enough to resist condemning others, strong enough to focus on stripping ourselves of sinful behaviors that keep us from intimacy with God.
