JESUS said
I AM the GOOD SHEPHERD.

A good shepherd lays down his life
for the sheep.
This is why the FATHER loves ME
because I lay down
my life in order to take it up again.

Fr. Thomas celebrates his 46th Ordination Anniversary on Monday, April 27th.

Thank you, Fr. Thomas, for all you do for our parish.
We love you!

Prayer for Priests

Lord, we love you,
fill the hearts of our priests with your light,
touch them with your mercy.

Help them to be beacons of your light
in the days ahead.

O Blessed Mother,
pray for our priests and pray for us,
keep them and us always under your mantle,
and may we all learn from you
how to always say yes when God calls,
today,
tomorrow,
throughout our whole life.

Amen.

Easter

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER (B) ♦ April 26, 2015

My mother lived for a time on a ranch in Texas. The ranch had cattle and sheep. My mother told me that sheep are pretty dumb and need a lot of care. She had great respect for the ranch hands who patiently got them out to pasture and then rounded them up when it was time to come in. Left to their own devices, she said, sheep would be easy prey for coyotes, foxes, and bobcats that roam the hill country.

Sheep were important for many families living in first-century Palestine as well. They provided food, clothing, milk, and a source of income.

A good shepherd was worth his weight in gold, because he spent his days with the sheep, leading them to pasture, protecting them from harm, and finding them when they got lost.

Shepherds may not have had a high social status, but it would have been hard to live without them.

Jesus, the Good Shepherd, does all these things for his flock, and then goes even further: "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep."

The ranch hands my mother talked about would have grieved over a dead sheep but wouldn't have died trying to save it. They made sure the sheep were watered and fed, but they didn't make the sheep's lives more abundant.

But we have abundant life because Jesus laid down his life for us. He is our Good Shepherd. Can we ask anything more?
