WOW...over 200 kids went on a Deep Sea Discovery at Vacation Bible School this week and learned that God is with them wherever they go! It would not been possible without over 150 volunteers who stepped up to make this a fun-filled week. Special thanks to our teachers, co-teachers, youth helpers, recreation leaders, snack committee, arts and crafts crew, Celebration Reef helpers, t-shirt makers, and Mrs. Babs for leading us in wonderful songs and prayers each day.

Thank you to Moms Plus, Knights of Columbus, Legion of Mary Notre Dame Du Lac, and Women Within for your generous donations! Thank you to all of the parishioners who made a donation either monetarily, donating a Wish Fish item, or simply giving of their time and talents. Thank you to Father Eric for giving us the opportunity to serve these kids through VBS. And even more thanks for praying to make this a successful week. We are already looking forward to next year!

Jubilee Year of Mercy June 26, 2016

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Yet again in Ordinary Time, Jesus seems to demand extraordinary commitment. A would-be disciple enthusiastically volunteers to follow Jesus “wherever” (Luke 9:57). Jesus replies that “wherever” means “nowhere to rest his head” (9:58). To other candidates, Jesus brusquely denies reasonable requests to fulfill family obligations (9:59, 61), declaring that discipleship demands total commitment—now! But Jesus also demands that we not judge how others respond. When James and John volunteered to “call down fire from heaven” (9:54) to destroy an unwelcoming town, Jesus “turned and rebuked them” (9:55). All violence of any kind is completely unacceptable among Jesus’ disciples, a lesson this Jubilee Year of Mercy is teaching the Christian community once again. Paul’s challenge to the Galatians and us reinforces Jesus’ decisive command to James and John that they express their commitment to him through compassion for others. We must abandon the violence of “biting and devouring one another” (Galatians 5:15), choosing instead to “serve one another through love” (5:13).
